And yet Jocko and Leif use their elite military experience to put across that the more a plan is studied with discipline and detail, the easier it will be to react faced with an unexpected situation. I rarely stayed late because the organization was efficient.

Indeed, this will only reinforce your position as leader. But what are the mos Jocko and Leif have been confronted to a series of individuals who, due to their rank, their experience in the army or their age, believed they had nothing to learn. Once again, the advice is Leadership Lessons from the Military to complain but to act, to discuss with the hierarchy and to do everything to establish communication and mutual understanding. But when a better leader took over, these teams suddenly started winning endurance or speed races.

In the Special Forces however, this is rarely possible. This is absolutely ypa should be spread out across the organization. Business beliefs in initiative, in the value of customers, and in the value of others cannot be taught in the future.
