I'd seen them in stores, and was always tempted by their dreary, ominous covers, but I'd never read one. Dec 30, Brian rated it it was ok. If we are going to commemorate the milestone anniversary of the worst crime ever committed in Big D, why Dallas Noir (Akashic Noir) precede it with a few tales of bad luck, bad choices, and bad timing?

Orisheonhiswayhome,flyingoutofLoveField,reminiscingafterseeingthe This collection of stories highlight the city of Dallas makes a fine edition to this series. But, that said, there were three or four authors I wrote down to search out more work from, and stories Dallas Noir (Akashic Noir) well from two writers who I already search out, neither of whom disappointed. The "dark side" of Dallas is highlighted, of course, but the book also captured the more normal side particularly .
