Additionally, they believe they were born to make a difference and that leads to their choices to live for something greater than just themselves, which in turn becomes a blessing not only for others, but for them. Leigh Ann bullies and rudely interjects herself where it sometimes isn't her business - she very often crosses the line from supporting, assisting, or "helping" to controlling. They walk the walk and exemplify generosity. Theyareouttoserveanddogoodworks. This was just page after page after page of name dropping and bragging and going on and on about all of the good things they've. Eighteen thousand a year? The Tuohys emphasize that you don't have to write a ginormous check in order to be helpful.
But, it took too long. Several times in the book she mentions how her husband ju
