It was a lesson in how you can put wild imagination onto the page and let it run away with. Coney makes a lived-in world and its passing is made more painful than some real societies in less well-written autobiographies. While not as evidently prescient as Huxley or Orwell, Zamyatin explores a potential extrapolation of the Soviet ideal. Thenoveldealswiththemesofgender,sexuality,politics,religionand.Ar A classic novel that stands above all. It's original, beautifully written, imaginative and highly thoughtful. Experimental,funnyandachinglyprescient.A brilliant haunting and deeply disturbing take on rural myths, Jungian philosophy,complete with gorgeous prose that fits into some sort of celtic myth cycle. Multi-platform emotional relationships and an unknown foe.
