A true erotic romance in every sense of the word, but not full blown erotica if you catch my meaning. While the characters were okay, I just felt that there were too many 'misunderstandings' - too many people working against. It's by the same author, so It should be good, if this one was anything to go by. Leave it as vague as possible. When you set out to write a story set in a place and time other than your familiar present and its culture and feel compelled to write Fastest binning in my personal history as a reader. Absolutely Beautiful What a great love story to read on New Years eve. Web, Tablet, Phone, eReader.

The romance between the two main characters was great to read, and I liked the
