Women haven't exactly written the history of America, and so our nation's strand of hardcore individualism means that we justify constrained decisions as our "choice". Being a man and a stay-at-home partner is not seen as valuable and does not communicate alpha male behavior, which many women are attracted to.

Andmenaccountforboththemaajorityoftheshelteredandunshelteredhomele I'm sure, to more conservative readers, that sounds like liberal laziness, but Americans work more than people in any other industrialized nation. But the findings are pretty depressing.
