Patricia Bremberg rated it it was amazing Dec 05, This former teacher has drawn upon her love for both history and English to enrich her novels.

I also felt bad for Deborah because the teen years are tough. But it was so well written that trope is easily dismissed. She's enthusiastic, loves life, cares for her family and embraces all she does wholeheartedly. I wish this story was longer so the reader could have Robert's letters to Theresa.

HeatherrateditlikeditNov01, Otherwise, the story is great and one of my favorites in the collection. This will be the last Christmas they have together before Liliias is forced into service and her siblings sent to relatives.
