March pg. What I liked most about this book is that it was full of large battle scenes.

Instead, we have a repetitive plot where things happen but in the end nothing goes as planned. The orcs have come together along with the giants, goblins and trolls. There are lots of windpipes getting slashed in this book, lots of angry dwarves, and quite a few orcs skewered on helmet spikes.

All the characters that fans have been clamoring for are here but the sheer number is quite sure where the author is going with that, but I have a feeling that this one's not going to be rescued by the rest of Clan Battlehammer.
