The author handled it very. Story is about deacon but told through tucker.

It's very entertaining, and I'm a sucker for best-friends-to-lovers stories. There is no magical healing sex and I really hate it when books are written like .

think the author's decision to have it told from Tucker's POV was a very good one; we get to see an evolution of friendship and feelings, and it was a good way to tackle a heavy issue without it being overwhelming to the story. He doesn't expect trouble from the boyfriend's sexy mother, Mitzi Jordan
