There are professors who add little value to a class, so I would spend some of that time preparing for a more rigorous one. Second, lawyers are colloquially referred to as sharks.
And please, do not take this opportunity to expound upon an area of the law that your professor neglected.
You will notice that nowhere in my explanations above did I mention supplements.
All the essentials Student life: I write my notes by hand because hearing it and then having to manually copy it burns it into my brain.
Learning the law at any stage of your academic career can be summarized in the your post. I guess I've gotten to the point where I'm worried my cruise control approach is unshared for a reason - and that there's some great calamity waiting for me further down the line.
