It had me crying in parts and I thought mid way through it was my least favourite of all. Not that the 4th was bad but just didn't care for the characters as .

It had more of an edge to it than her usual work and definitely kept me in suspense. I really enjoyed this story and I felt that this was the one out of the whole anthology that had all the loose ends tied up at the end.

The romances were fun and engaging and I loved the time travel. Janet Chapman-
