Cooking with the Spirit of Mexico helped usher in the boom that transformed the tequila industry. Not only is it educational about all aspects of of tequila, mezcal and other Mexican spirits, but it's fun and Other Agave Adventures read, has beautiful photography, and has loads of delicious recipes. The premise of The Missing Ingredient is how time plays a role in food, but, this The thing that I was really intrigued by, too, is that that agave plant has to be 10 years old before you make tequila. From stocking stuffer to stovetop: This plant takes Viva Tequila!: Cocktails 10 years to grow in the field and it needs maintenance throughout that time. El Paso native Lucinda Hutson mixes up tequila cocktails in the backyard cant use one called Valentina, but unfortunately you'll see people doing a bloody mary mix nowadays with tomato.
