Without this auto-didact willing to teach himself artillery and French, it's unclear how far the Revolutionary Cause would have advanced. This man did it all. In the narrative vein of by McCullough.

I do still recommend this book as I think Puls paints a good overall account of K. He deserves to be listed among the greats Johnson Patterson McCloy Petersen. I read quite a bit of history, so I was familiar with Henry Knox.

The author notes that since Knox had studied Latin for one year, he was able to begin the formation of the U.
