Accordingly, there are many end time prophecies that have never been understood until now, either because their understanding depended on historical events or because they were dependent upon technological developments. Throughout history, great souls who we call prophets, messengers and manifestations of God have experienced an unrelenting desire to spiritually uplift their people.

The views expressed in our content reflect individual perspectives and do not represent the views of the publisher. The Greek text of Daniel is considerably longer than the Hebrew, due to three additional stories: Both Greek texts contain three additions to Daniel: Crawford, Sidnie White The Four Beasts Chapter 8: Classical Confucian tradition, however, emphasized the importance of rational process over inspiration and divination. In the third year of Cyrus [Notes 5] Daniel sees in his vision an angel called "a man", but clearly a supernatural being who explains that he is in the midst of a war with the "prince of Persia", assisted only by Michael "your prince".
