I started out this novel thinking it would be a good, light read and yes it was, but I never imagined how good it would be. Being in a society where most, if not all people have grown up to believe curses aren't The Legend of Lady MacLaoch, it would be hard to land in a situation as Cole did and handle it any other way than she did. The legend—one started with blood—will end with more shed as its creator finally exacts her justice.
